About Knock Knock Children's Museum:

Knock Knock Children's Museum is comprised of hands-on, interactive exhibits called "Learning Zones." Anchored in research and evidence-based practices addressing all areas of development, the "Learning Zones" are designed to create teachable moments that will connect children's every-day experiences to learning. Knock Knock's focus is on the development of the whole child with the goal of increasing early literacy skills (reading, writing, listening, and speaking) while expanding knowledge and raising interest in STEAM (science, technology, engineering, art, and math) subjects and careers, especially among children from under-served and under-represented populations. Knock Knock is specifically committed to taking action to combat race and gender bias and discrimination.

Knock Knock is committed to fostering an inclusive environment that encourages and values diversity in its staff, the board of trustees, supporters, volunteers, audience, collections, exhibitions, and programming. Diversity/IDEA enhances the institution's engagement with an increasingly broad spectrum of participants and strengthens relationships within our community and beyond.
